HAWAII CHRISTMAS

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 31.—University of Nevada's football team will play here Christmas and New Years day, according to present plans, instead of the Occidental college team of Los Angeles, California, as previously announced. The Nevadans meet the University of Hawaii eleven Christmas day and the interisland champions on New years.

University of Hawaii football men are planning to play Stanford University or the University of California Christmas after next.

SERVICE MEN WANT
BARMAIDS' PLACES

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
LIVERPOOL, Aug. 30.—About 2000 former service men here are protesting against the employment of barmaids in the city's hotels and public houses.

When a deputation waited on the committee of the Liverpool Brewers and Spirit Merchants association, one of the men stated that if the barmaids did not give place to service men action would be taken as would force the women out.

There are about 2000 barmaids employed in Liverpool.

Location books to replicate now ready at The Bonanza office.

LARGE CONTINGENT
ONCE IN PACIFIC

(Correspondence of Associated Press) HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 31.—If Robinson Crusoe had lived during the cretaceous period of geologic times, the scene of his shipwreck would have been a continent 6000 miles across, instead of the little island of Juan Fernandez, according to evidence presented to the Pan Pacific congress, in session here August 2 to 20, by Professor W. A.
Bryan, scientist of the University of Hawaii.

Professor Bryan, who has just returned from a scientific expedition to the mainland and islands of the south, declared he brought back facts tending to show that at some time—probably during the cretaceous period—there existed a land connection from Juan Fernandez north 6000 miles to the Hawaiian islands.

PEARL SEASON IN PACIFIC IS OPEN

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
PAPEETE, Tahiti, July 20.—Pearl diving opens at Hikueru, Paumotu islands, on the first of August, and practically every boat here has sailed for that place loaded with articles which will be traded for the shell and pearls of this year's diving.
Divers this year expect to reap a big harvest as the oyster beds have not been molested since early in the war.

EASTERNERS ARE BEST AT TENNIS

More Time for Practice Given as Main Reason For Better Play of Coast Men

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The reason the east has an advantage over all other sections of the country in tennis is due to the fact that easterners have more time to play the game, according to Dr. Edward T. Pancoast, formerly one of the best players in this city, but now of Peru, Indiana. He is visiting here.

Dr. Pancoast, an Episcopal clergyman, is still a keen student and advocate of the sport.

"The middle west has just as good material to work with," he said. "We have stars who would be just as good as the best in the east if they all weren't too busy making a living."

Take, for instance, Ralph Burdick.
Here is one of the leading players we have who is so busy he feels thankful if he can get a racquet in his hands once a week. Ralph gave Bill Tilden, the world's champion, the hardest kind of a battle a short time ago and was leading 6 to 3 in the first set and 5 to 1 in the second when a volley broke the net. After a 10-minute layoff, Burdick lost his terrible pace and Tilden finally won.

UNKNOWN SPANISH
MISSION IS FOUND

(By Associated Press)
NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 31.—Records left by the early Spanish padres recently led to the location by Frank Pinkley of the United States national park service of the ruins of an old Arizona mission which had never been officially recorded. The mission is at Calabasas, nine miles south of here, and, it is thought, was founded in 1770.

Another old mission, yet unrecorded, is in this district, Mr. Pinkley believes. The second mission, which bore the name San Luis Tacacusa, is located, it is believed, somewhere near the Mexican border. Pinkley is to make an extensive search for the ruin.

RESTORATION OF
MISSIONS PLANNED

(By Associated Press)
NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 31.—Active work has started at an international line of old missions, extending from the state of Sonora across the boundary in Mexico, up through the Santa Cruz valley of Arizona.

Tumacacori mission, which, it is believed, was founded in 1680, is the first to be restored. The Nogales chamber of commerce and the federal government already have donated funds for the work.

Mexican missions, across the border, antedate the Tumacacori mission, according to records here. The Spanish padres of years ago, according to Byron S. Cummings, dean of the University of Arizona, were in Mexico before they entered Arizona.
The government of Sonora, it is reported, have named men to carry on the work of restoration in Mexico.

FRENCH ADVISED TO LEARN GERMAN

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
PARIS, Aug. 9.—"Learn German" is the advice former President Poincare has given the French through the Association of Language Professors.

M. Poincare said German must be known by those who undertake the administration of the occupied regions and also to restore French to its proper place in Alsace-Lorraine.

Army officers recently were urged to learn German. The government has reinstated that language in the officers' training schools.

TIN CANS CROSS
PACIFIC 4 TIMES

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 31.— Christmas toys received here from Japan are said to include novelties made from tin cans which have crossed the Pacific ocean four times.
The cans, originally used in shipping cane oil to China, were refilled there with soy bean and other vegetable oils and reshipped to the United States. When emptied again here, it is said, they were purchased by Japanese and sent back across the Pacific to Japan where they were made into toys for American children.

You are safe in trusting your money to a man who is courteous when he has nothing to gain by it, and you are never safe in lending a nickel to one who is courteous because he thinks it will get him something.

The efficient worker is never noisy —unless he's a bass drummer.

A long felt want. The Bonanza has printed and bound a fresh lot of location certificate books. Just what you want when you go out.

For justice and equality regardless of race, creed or color, vote for Frank J. Cunningham for justice of the peace at the primary election, September 7.

In the Race for State Senator

(From the Manhattan Magnet, August 7, 1920) In seeking at the hands of the Democratic party the nomination State Senator from Nye County, Ben D. Luce stands upon his records. He has always been a zealous worker for his party, but when he served the people of this county in the Legislature, he strove for the general good of all the people, no matter what might be their political affiliations. Although himself too old to shoulder a rifle, he sent his son to battle and was a vigorous war worker throughout the conflict. Mr. Luce was a power in the Nevada Legislature, and when he was chosen Speaker of the House his every decision was marked by impartiality and good judgment. He has been a resident and taxpayer of Nye County for many years and is a heavy operator in the mill tailings industry at Tonopah. He merits and enjoys the confidence and friendship of all his workmen.
